

Clover Park School District

Honor Graduate
Dessert Reception
May 18, 2011

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Walt Kelcy, Jr., President
Carole Jacobs, Vice President
Marty Schafer
Joe Vlaming
Paul Wagemann

Learning today. Leading tomorrow.

Robert Allen II

Robert was a four-year member of the Lakes varsity wrestling team. He received the Most Outstanding Career Scholar Award and the Washington Interscholastic Activities Association (WIAA) All-Academic Award. Robert was an Ignite Mentor, member of the Army JROTC and the National Honor Society. He plans to attend Vermont's Norwich University and study business management. Outside of school, Robert boxes and listens to music. Robert is the son of Mariah and Robert Allen.

Matthew Archer

Matthew earned his associate's degree through the Running Start program at Pierce College and plans to attend Whittier College in California, where he'll study economics. He was a member and captain of the Lakes varsity swimming and water polo teams and is proud to be an honor graduate. Matthew earned a John Greenleaf Whittier Merit Scholarship and a Pederson Scholarship. Outside of his studies, Matthew is a volunteer at the Veteran's Administration Hospital, enjoys backpacking, frisbee, snorkeling and bird watching. Matthew is the son of Terri and John Archer.

Melissa Brown

While at Lakes, Missy was a member of the varsity dance team and received a WIAA Scholastic Award. She was a member of the National Honor Society and the Blue and Orange Scream Squad. Missy received a Presidential Scholarship and an Alumni Association Scholarship from Washington State University (WSU), where she plans to study nursing and athletic training. In the community, Missy volunteers for Relay for Life, Nativity House, Vacation Bible School, Mothers of Preschoolers and several other church-related activities. She enjoys coaching gymnastics at the YMCA, baking and spending time with family and friends. Missy is the daughter of Karin and Joe Brown.

Kirsten Calitis

Kirsten was a member of the Lakes soccer and tennis teams. She was an Ignite Mentor and member of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) and National Honor Society. Kirsten received an academic scholarship from Pacific Lutheran University (PLU), where she'll begin the nursing program. Outside of school, Kirsten was a summer school volunteer at Custer and Dower Elementary Schools, where she helped students with math and reading. She also enjoys playing sports and spending time with family. Kirsten is the daughter of Renee and Al Calitis.

Leena Carroll

While at Lakes, Leena was a member of the dance team, Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) and an Ignite Mentor. She was on the Honor Roll and received a Washington Grant, Pell Grant and a Passport Scholarship that she'll use to attend PLU to study nursing. When she's not in school, Leena is involved in her church, plays soccer, enjoys photography, drawing and listening to music. Leena is accompanied tonight by Charles Hanke.

Grace Choi

Grace was a member of the Lakes varsity tennis team and involved in student government. She was accepted to Oregon State University, but will attend the University of Washington (UW) and study business. Grace was a member of the Lakewood Youth Council and participated in Make A Difference Day. When she's not at school, Grace enjoys reading, running and spending time with friends. Grace is the daughter of Seung Choi.

Austin Clark

Austin was a member of the Lakes varsity football team and enjoys weightlifting in his free time. After graduation, Austin plans to attend Kansas State University and study kinesiology—the science of human movement. Austin is the son of Andrea and William Clark.

Donald Clark

While at Lakes, Donald was a member of the National Honor Society, where he received an honor pin. He assisted the athletic director and was an after school tutor. Donald enjoys building model rockets and playing chess and video games.

Mallory Craker

Mallory was the Lakes senior class president, captain of the dance team and a member of the National Honor Society. She plans to attend UW and study biochemistry. She was also selected to be a 2011-12 UW cheerleader. In her free time, Mallory tutored students in math, led community dance clinics and organized several food drives. She loves to dance, spend time with family and friends and watch sports. Mallory is the daughter of Lisa and Jeff Craker.

Daniel Davis

While at Lakes, Daniel was a member of the varsity football team where he earned an Honorable Mention Award and the Coaches' Award for his role as running back. He was also named "Most likely to be in the Olympics." Although he's not sure what he'll major in, Daniel will attend PLU, where he received a Faculty Scholarship and the Davis Law Group Scholar Athlete Award. Outside of school, Daniel helped coach the Lakewood Lumberjack Football Camp and enjoys lifting weights. Daniel is the son of Teresa and Roger Curry.

Atrian Dorres

Atrian was a member of the Clover Park Air Force JROTC strength team. When not at school, he enjoys playing softball, basketball and volleyball. Atrian is the son of Sylvia Benjamin and Kastino Rodriguez.

Sabrina Dzierzanowski

While at Clover Park, Sabrina was a member of the tennis team and facilitated and led activities for Parks Appreciation Day with the City of Lakewood. After graduation she will begin the baking and pastry arts program at South Puget Sound Community College. Sabrina enjoys having a job and making her own money. She also likes to read, bake and listen to music. Sabrina is the daughter of Dawn and Isaac Trevino.

Billie Rae Edwards

After graduation from Lakes, Billie plans to attend the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs where she'll study behavioral science. Billie was involved in ASB, concert and studio choirs and was a member of the varsity golf team. Outside of school, Billie was a member of the Lakewood Youth Council and skated with the Lakewood Winter Club. She enjoys snowboarding, playing piano and guitar and hiking and camping with her family. Billie is the daughter of Edna and Troy Edwards.

Shoshaunee Elliott

Shoshaunee was a Lakes Ignite Mentor and member of the National Honor Society and Army JROTC. She helped mentor students in public relations and communications and was a Power of One leader through Ignite. Although she doesn't know what school she'll attend, Shoshaunee plans to study psychology. Outside of school she volunteered at Wolf Haven International and helped in a first-grade classroom. She enjoys cooking, listening to music and spending time with her family. Shoshaunee is the daughter of Dawn Elliott and Tim Hilf-Barr.

Michael Fernandez

After graduation from Clover Park, Michael plans to attend UW Tacoma and study video production. He was a member of the varsity boy's tennis team, Key Club and National Honor Society. Michael was a Communities in Schools of Lakewood (CISL) tutor at Tyee Park Elementary School and is actively involved in his church. He loves playing, making and listening to music. Michael is the son of Charisse and Arsenio Fernandez.

Michelle Fernandez

Michelle was a member of the Clover Park varsity tennis team, Key Club and Mathematics, Engineering, Science Achievement (MESA). She recently took second place at MESA Day at PLU. Michelle plans to attend UW Tacoma, where she'll study criminal justice. When she's not at school, Michelle is a member of the Police Explorers Program and is involved in her church. She enjoys blogging, playing tennis and listening to music. Michelle is the daughter of Charisse and Arsenio Fernandez.

Ben Fosnick

Ben was a four-year member of the Lakes varsity golf team and competed at state for the past three years. He earned a chancellor's scholarship and an athletic talent award to St. Martin's University, where he'll study mechanical engineering. Ben was a volunteer in his church and coached Little League baseball. In his spare time, Ben enjoys reading, golfing and relaxing. Ben is the son of Jennifer and Michael Fosnick.

John Funk

John was the Lakes senior class vice president and a member of the varsity football team and National Honor Society. He was a finalist for the Scholar Athlete Lineman of the Year Award and received a four-year Army ROTC scholarship to Boise State University and a three-year scholarship to Pennsylvania State University (Penn State), where he'll study kinesiology. John is an usher for his church and enjoys listening to music, watching SportsCenter and going to the beach. John is the son of Nellie and David Funk.

Kyle Gallagher

While at Lakes, Kyle was a member of DECA, an Ignite Mentor and a member of the football team. He was a Scholar-Athlete finalist for the Tacoma-Pierce County chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. Kyle received a Qwest Leadership Challenge Award and plans to attend the UW to study business administration and accounting. Outside of school, Kyle was a volunteer for the Lakewood Baseball Club. Kyle is the son of Elyna and Jeff Gallagher.

Jason Gano

Jason was a member of DECA and the Lakes football team. He participated in a two-month internship in Washington, D.C., with Congress last summer and earned an academic leadership award and the Jason Lee award from Willamette University in Oregon, where he'll study political science. In his free time, Jason is involved in Boy Scouts and Habitat for Humanity. Jason is the son of Kathleen and Steve Gano.

Andrea Garosi

Andrea was the president of the National Honor Society, a Lakes DECA vice president and member of the soccer team and French Club. Andrea received a Young Republican Scholarship and a Gem Scholarship that she'll use to attend Penn State and study petroleum engineering and accounting. When she's not in school, Andrea likes to travel, play soccer and admire George W. Bush. Andrea is the daughter of Ericka and Michael Garosi.

Dillon Gee

Dillon was captain of the Lakes baseball team and played golf and basketbal. He was an honors athlete and plans to attend WSU to study physical therapy. In the community, Dillon is a member of The Church at Lakewood. Dillon is the son of Kitti and Dave Wheeler and Ronald Gee.

Raymond Goldberg

While at Lakes, Raymond was a member of the varsity cross country team and Command Sergeant Major of the Army JROTC. He earned first place in the color guard and physical fitness categories at the Oregon City JROTC competition. Raymond received a full-ride JROTC Scholarship, Arthur S. Thomas Memorial Scholarship and the University of South Florida Scholars Award, where he'll attend to study computer engineering. Raymond enjoys paintball, weightlifting, running and scuba diving. Raymond is the son of Patricia and Jeffrey Goldberg.

Stephanie Green

Stephanie was captain of the Lakes varsity golf and fastpitch teams and also qualified for districts. She was named to the Dean's List at Pierce College, where she'll earn an associate's degree this June. She plans to attend UW and become a nurse. In the community, Stephanie was a volunteer at St. Clare Hospital, Park Lodge Elementary School and St. Frances Cabrini. In her free time, Stephanie likes to play sports, travel, cook, learn new things and spend time with friends and family. Stephanie is the daughter of Roditha and Ted Green.

Monique Greene

After graduating from Clover Park, Monique plans to attend the UW, where she'll study pre-health sciences. She was named to the Pierce College Dean's List, where she's a student ambassador, and was an Elizabeth Wesley Youth Merit recipient. Monique played soccer and basketball, earning an All-League Honorable Mention. Outside of school she is a Relay for Life volunteer, attends a local church and plays basketball at the Lakewood Family YMCA. Monique is the daughter of Brigitte and James Kennedy.

James Harley

James was a member of the Lakes cross country team and the swim team. He's already earned an associate's degree through the Running Start program at Pierce College and plans to go on to study engineering and pre-med. James is very involved in his church and is a member of the Venture Crew through Boy Scouts of America. He loves the outdoors and especially enjoys rock climbing. James is the son of Donna and Kevin Harley.

Anjelica Jordin Harlow

Anjelica was a Lakes varsity volleyball Lancer Legend, captain of the volleyball team and a member of DECA, where she placed first in the area, first in state and was an international qualifier. Anjelica was the president of Ignite Mentoring and a member of the studio and concert choirs. She received a Qwest Leadership Challenge Award and was the Pierce County Stand Out Prom Scholarship winner. Anjelica plans to attend the UW and study architecture. When she's not in school, Anjelica enjoys photography and volunteering for the Lakewood Baseball Club and the Mann Middle School volleyball team. Anjelica is the daughter of Kaimi and John Harlow.

Willie Harper

While at Lakes, Willie was the varsity wrestling captain and earned a WIAA Distinguished Scholastic Award. He plans to attend Pierce College and study criminal justice. Willie enjoys kayaking and playing the guitar. Willie is the son of Bonnie and Craig Freshour.

Allyson Harris

After graduation from Clover Park, Allyson plans to attend PLU, where she earned an academic scholarship and plans to become a nurse. In addition to her schoolwork, Allyson was a member of the Clover Park volleyball team. Allyson is the daughter of Lori and Daniel Harris.

Krystal Marie Henry

During her time at Lakes, Krystal was captain of the girl's swimming and water polo teams, a member of the studio choir and section leader of the concert choir. She plans to attend the UW and study chemistry and earned a variety of scholarships including a four-year Air Force ROTC Scholarship, a PLU President's Scholarship and a four-year Trustee Scholarship to the University of Puget Sound. In the community, Krystal was team leader for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's Walk to Cure, a member of her church youth group, a lifeguard and water safety instructor and a guest columnist for Lakewood Patch. She's an avid reader, occasional gamer and enjoys playing the piano. Krystal is the daughter of Jean and Arthur Henry.

Fiona Hines

Fiona earned a varsity letter in tennis, was an Ignite Mentor, and was vice president of the Lakes Key Club. She earned a Nisei Student Relocation Commemorative Fund Scholarship and plans to attend the UW to study psychology. Fiona is a Vacation Bible School volunteer, leader of her church drama team and involved in mission trips. She enjoys playing the guitar and listening to music. Fiona is the daughter of Yong and Jon Hines.

Austin Hjelm

While at Lakes, Austin was captain of the Knowledge Bowl and participated in track and field. He plans to attend Brigham Young University and study mechanical engineering. Outside of school, Austin is involved in Boy Scouts—and was named an Eagle Scout—and volunteers at Idlewild Elementary and his church. He enjoys his AP classes, studying history, playing Ultimate Frisbee and spending time with his family. Austin is the son of Jodi and Ron Hjelm.

William Huhner

William was a member of the Knowledge Bowl team, earned a Kiwanis Instrumental Music Award and a Four-Year Medalist Award for his participation in the Lakes symphonic band and jazz ensemble. He earned a Western Undergraduate Exchange scholarship that he plans to use to attend Montana State University-Bozeman to study mathematics education. When he's not in school, William is a volunteer with Footprint—a support group for families with children who have chronic or terminal illnesses. William enjoys playing trombone, cello and piano and studying math. William is the son of Margaret and Kris Huhner.

India Irons

India was a member of the Lakes varsity girl's basketball team, jazz ensemble and symphonic band. She was named Lakewood Boys & Girls Club Youth of the Year and earned a basketball Outstanding Scholastic Award. India earned an academic achievement scholarship to attend PLU and study political science. Outside of school, India is a tutor, mentor, choreographer and member of the stage crew at the Boys & Girls Club. She is also a musician at her church and enjoys playing the alto and tenor saxophones and reading. India is the daughter of Stephan Irons.

Evonne Johnsen

While at Clover Park, Evonne was a member of the Key Club, MESA and Knowledge Bowl team. Evonne recently participated in a MESA competition, where she took second place for her wind power project. She plans to attend Pierce College and study nursing to become a physician's assistant. Evonne is a volunteer at the Lakewood Health Care Center and, in her free time, plays piano and blogs. Evonne is the niece of Lee and Gregg Johnsen.

Angela Jong

Angela was the founder and president of the Lakes Speech and Debate team, member of the Key Club, a four-year varsity tennis player and yearbook editor. Angela was a National Merit Commended student and a state finalist in the Lincoln Douglas Debate. She earned a Lakeview Light and Power Scholarship and is a University of Pennsylvania Benjamin Franklin Scholar. Angela will attend UPenn and study international relations and economics. In the community, Angela is a leader in her church youth group, a volunteer at the Tacoma Rescue Mission and a mentor to an eight-year-old. She enjoys reading, listening to music and volunteering. Angela is the daughter of Hui Min Jong.

Eugenia Kang

Eugenia plans to attend the UW and study biology. She was a member of the Clover Park Journalism and Art Clubs and also played sports. Eugenia was a volunteer at the Tacoma Art Museum and the Children's Museum of Tacoma. In her free time, she enjoys watching movies and reading. Eugenia is the daughter of Young Sung and Kil Won Kang.

Celina Kim

After graduation from Clover Park, Celina plans to attend the UW—where she earned a scholarship for academic excellence—and study biology. She was ASB president and a member of the varsity cheer squad, golf team, Key Club and International Club. Outside of school, Celina was a member of the Lakewood Youth Council and is active at Tacoma First Baptist Church. She also enjoys spending time with her family, attending leadership conferences and playing the piano. Celina is the daughter of Myung and Yunlye Kim.

Laurie LaFave

Laurie was a member of the Lakes varsity dance team, where she earned the "Gummy Bear" Award for being most lovable. She was also a member of ASB and the varsity tennis team. She plans to attend Green River Community College to become a registered nurse. Laurie is a volunteer with the children's ministry at The Church at Lakewood, enjoys playing tennis, getting her nails painted and eating. She is the daughter of Roxanne and Kevin LaFave.

Daniel Lee

Daniel was a member of the Clover Park Homecoming Court and participated in choir and swimming. He was a Caring for Kids volunteer and is a member of the Lakewood Family YMCA. When he's not at school, Daniel likes to swim, watch TV and talk to people. Daniel is the grandson of Tae Stevens.

Juliano Lee

Juliano was the Lakes ASB vice president, a member of the Key Club—where he edited the club bulletin—and a four-year varsity tennis player. He plans to attend Western Washington University (WWU) and study to become a secondary education teacher. Juliano is working to earn his black belt in tae kwon do, enjoys playing the bass guitar and is a youth group leader at his church. Juliano is the son of Jong and Kwang Lee.

Yujin Lee

While at Clover Park, Yujin was a member of the Language in Action Club, Art Club and the Air Force JROTC, where she earned the Cadet of the Month Award. Yujin earned a Husky Promise Scholarship to the UW, where she will study chemistry. Yujin is an active member of her church and tutors students in math and also enjoys listening to music. Yujin is the daughter of Bookwon Lee and Soungsook Lim.

Jie Li

Jie was a member of the Clover Park Key Club and earned a spot on the Phoenix Academy Honor Roll. Outside of school, she was a middle school mentor and was involved with the United Way of Pierce County. Jie plans to attend UW this fall. In her spare time, she enjoys singing and reading. Jie is the daughter of Qingfeng Zhai and Tingyun Li.

Jasmine Lopez

While at Lakes, Jasmine was a member of the varsity swim team and earned an All-Academic Award. She plans to attend the UW and study engineering. When she's not at school, Jasmine likes to ride her bike. Jasmine is the daughter of Fernando Lopez.

Ralph Roi Mallare

Before coming to Clover Park, Ralph Roi was the editor of his high school's yearbook and a member of the basketball team. He was one of 22 finalists for an Act Six Scholarship and named to PLU's 2011 Honor Graduate list, where he'll begin studying fine arts this fall. Ralph Roi was also recognized by the City of Lakewood for the contributions of his senior service project. Outside of school, Ralph Roi sings in his church choir and volunteers with the church youth. He enjoys drawing, playing basketball, reading and spending time with friends. Ralph Roi is the son of Rowena and Rolliet Mallare.

James Mamerto

During his time at Clover Park, James was a member of the Aktion Club, Key Club, National Honor Society, Knowledge Bowl team, MESA and a CISL tutor. He earned an Exceptional Character Award and was on the Honor Roll. James is an Act Six Scholar and also received a Comcast Leadership Scholarship and a Faculty Scholarship to PLU, where he will study nursing. Outside of school, James enjoys road trips, challenging himself and making music. He is the son of Marife and Rolando Mamerto.

Rio Marquez-Hammitt

Rio was the Lakes Daffodil Princess, a member of the studio and concert choirs, an Ignite Executive Mentor and member of DECA. She plans to attend the University of Portland, where she received a President's Scholarship and grant, and plans to study environmental engineering. Rio was a volunteer at the Boys & Girls Club, the Lakewood MultiCare Clinic, group reader for Pierce County Library Systems, member of the St. Frances Cabrini youth group and works at Black Bear Frozen Yogurt. She enjoys backpacking with her dad, studying for AP tests, singing and listening to music and spending time with family and friends. Rio is the daughter of Julieta and Robert Marquez-Hammitt.

Rosemary Mathison

After graduation from Lakes, Rosemary plans to attend Pierce College and study art history before transferring to a four-year university. She received a Kiwanis Art Award and was a member of the French Club, National Honor Society and orchestra. In her free time, Rosemary participated in the Step-Out for Diabetes Walk and enjoys drawing, painting, reading, writing, photography and playing the violin. Rosemary is the daughter of Liza and Donald Mathison.

Katelyn McLeod

Katelyn was a three-year Lakes varsity soccer player and a two-year member of DECA. She was a Running Start student and attended Pierce College, where she was a member of the Honor Society. Katelyn earned a Merit Academic Scholarship to WSU, but plans to attend the UW, where she'll study veterinary sciences. She also earned the Franciscan Health Scholarship from St. Joseph Medical Center. Katelyn is a member of the First Baptist Church of Lakewood and has been a Special Olympics volunteer for several years. She enjoys reading, spending time with friends, eating frozen yogurt at Black Bear and taking her dog, Chuck, on walks. Katelyn is the daughter of Jera'Le and Scott McLeod.

Angelica Mejia

While at Clover Park, Angelica was a wrestler, placing first at districts and eighth in state. She was a Student 2 Student mentor and member of the National Honor Society. Outside of school, she volunteered at the Lakewood Health Care Center. Angelica enjoys playing sports, spending time with friends, cooking and listening to music. After graduation, she plans to enlist in the Air Force and study criminology. She is the daughter of Dolores and Nelson Mejia.

Sean Menstell Fraser

While at Lakes, Sean was a member of the French Club and volunteered at the Veteran's Administration Hospital. He plans to attend WWU and study computer science. Sean is the son of Virginia Menstell and Blair Fraser.

Brooke Mortensen

Brooke was a member of the Lakes track and field team, editor of the school's literary magazine, studio choir section leader and a Voices of Gold Ensemble member. She plans to attend Brigham Young University in Idaho and study musical education. Brooke is president of her church youth group and a seminary chorister. She enjoys singing, sports, reading and attending church and school activities. Brooke is the daughter of Tiffany and Jon Mortensen.

Colette Moss

Colette was the Lakes golf team captain, choral treasurer, an Ignite Mentor and three-year member of the Knowledge Bowl team. Colette was the first place physics and astronomy winner at the South Sound Regional Science Fair, received a Comcast Leadership Scholarship, the Lelli Memorial Scholarship from the Propeller Club of the Port of Tacoma and a Palmer Scholarship. She plans to attend the UW and study psychology. Outside of school, Colette was a member of the City of Lakewood's Youth Council and a Caring for Kids volunteer. She enjoys playing the piano, photography and studying psychology. Colette is the daughter of Melvaniqua Moss.

Emeila Rose Myers

Emeila was a member of Clover Park's CPac Choir, a teacher's assistant in the library and sang at the district's annual Track Stars Invitational. She was a member of the Aktion Club, a Caring for Kids volunteer and a volunteer at Park Lodge Elementary School and her church. Outside of school, Emeila likes to read, use the computer, sing, watch movies and spend time with her family and dog, Pepper. Next year, Emeila will attend the district's Alfaretta House. Emeila is the daughter of Rachel and Greg Myers.

Vitaliy Natkha

Vitaliy was a member of the Clover Park Air Force JROTC and the track team. He was a Running Start student and plans to attend PLU and study biology and pre-med. Vitaliy teaches Sunday School at his church and plays the piano and trumpet. Vitaliy is the son of Irina and Pavel Natkha.

Hayley Nichols

While at Lakes, Hayley was involved in the culinary arts program, National Honor Society and drama productions. Outside of school, she was a volunteer for the Hillside Elementary School PTA and the Fort Lewis Fisher House. Hayley plans to attend Pierce College and study anthropology. Hayley is the daughter of Leah and Jason Miller.

Won Suk Oh

Won Suk was a member of the Clover Park ASB, president of the Journalism Club and member of the soccer team. He was a 2010 Washington Scholar and Lakewood Rotary Student of the Month for January. Won Suk was a finalist for the QuestBridge National College Scholarship and a Palmer Scholarship and plans to attend the UW and study business administration. Won Suk is actively involved in his community, including church, Lakewood Youth Council and the Dupont Soccer Club. In his free time, he sings karaoke and plays the ukulele. Won Suk is the son of Yeonseok and Seheon Oh.

Karsten Olson

While at Lakes, Karsten was captain of the basketball team, a member of DECA and earned a student athlete honor. Karsten received an academic scholarship to PLU, where he'll study business and theology. In the community, Karsten was a youth leader at Blessed Temple. He enjoys reading, connecting with people and playing basketball. Karsten is the son of Kim and Knut Olson.

Daniel Paek

Daniel was the Wing Commander for the Clover Park Air Force JROTC and earned an Air Force Association Award. He was also a member of the unarmed drill team and the competition color guard. Daniel received a Husky Promise scholarship and will attend the UW and study chemistry. Daniel is actively involved in his church and is a tutor at Centro Latino, Mann Middle School and Park Lodge Elementary School. He enjoys playing the bass and acoustic guitar, swimming and reading. Daniel is the son of Chun and Dong Paek.

Kimberly Pace

After graduation from Clover Park, Kimberly plans to study criminal justice. She volunteers her time assisting the United States Air Force with recruiting and community outreach. Kimberly is the daughter of Heidi and Chris Mahoney.

Hana Page

While at Clover Park, Hana was a member of the National Honor Society, MESA, varsity golf team and the Knowledge Bowl team. She received several scholarships, including the Ron Brown Scholarship, QuestBridge National College Scholarship, Boeing SENSE Scholarship, Gates Millennium Scholarship and an Academic Full-Ride Scholarship to UPenn, where she'll study biomedical engineering. Outside of school, Hana is a tutor and mentor for the Tacoma Korean-American Association and Oakwood Elementary School. She was a student ambassador at Pierce College and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. In her spare time, Hana likes to read, golf, volunteer and do yoga. Hana is the daughter of Suki Page.

Linda Park

Linda was a member of the varsity girl's golf team, Air Force JROTC drill team and the Journalism Club at Clover Park. She received an award from the Military Order of World Wars and an Academic Achievement Scholarship and President's Scholarship to the UW, where she'll study marketing and international business. Outside of school, Linda is a member of the Korean-American Grocers Association and enjoys playing golf and spending time with her family. Linda is the daughter of Young and Jae Park.

Melissa Pate

While at Clover Park, Melissa earned an Associate of Applied Technology degree in interior design from Clover Park Technical College (CPTC). Melissa was an active volunteer at Lakeview Hope Academy and enjoys listening to music, dancing, drafting, reading and NASCAR. Melissa is the daughter of Carol and Gary Pate.

Carl Peretania

During his time at Lakes, Carl was a member of the National Honor Society, varsity football team, Pacific Islanders Club and Key Club. He plans to attend WSU and study architecture and interior design. Outside of school, Carl volunteers his time with tsunami relief efforts and community clean-up projects. He also enjoys playing rugby, drawing and studying literature. He is the nephew of Paratina and Phillip Questel.

Perri Pettit

While at Lakes, Perri was an Ignite Executive Mentor, a member of the varsity water polo team and the drama club. She earned a Scholar Athlete Award, a Boys & Girls Club Scholarship and an Academic Scholarship from PLU, where she plans to study education. Outside of school, Perri volunteered at the Boys & Girls Club of South Pierce County. Perri is the daughter of Janet and Robert Pettit.

Angelica Ponce

During her time at Lakes, Angelica was a three-year Ignite Mentor, manager of the wrestling team, a member of Army JROTC and drama club. She earned a Best of the Best Scholarship to Le Cordon Bleu, where she'll study patisserie—the art of pastries—and baking. Angelica is a volunteer Little League coach and enjoys attending her sister's volleyball games, cheering on her boyfriend at track meets and spending time with her family. Angelica is the daughter of Christina and Robert Ponce.

Sabrina Racine

Sabrina was a member of the Lakes Army JROTC, where she served as a cadet major and a battalion commander. She was also a member of Key Club and the water polo team. Sabrina plans to attend Montana State University and is the daughter of Kelli and Tom Racine.

Cindy Ramirez

De'ja Rice

De'ja was a Lakes Daffodil Princess finalist, president of FCCLA, vice president of business partnerships for DECA and worked in the new student store. De'ja was accepted to WSU, but will attend Pierce College for one year to study business and then transfer to a four-year university. In the community, De'ja was a blood donor, participated in charity events and walks and volunteered at Hudtloff Middle School. Outside of school, De'ja works at Office Depot and likes to listen to music, eat and shop. De'ja is the daughter of Dee Rice.

Layne Riggs

Rachel Rodriguez

While at Lakes, Rachel also attended CPTC, where she earned an Associate of Applied Technology degree in low voltage electrical and was named to the President's List. Rachel has already completed half the required hours to be a journeyman electrician. In the community, Rachel is a volunteer Bible teacher at her church. She enjoys playing and listening to music, drawing and screen-printing. Rachel is the daughter of Vaile and Angelo Rodriguez.

Jesus Rosales

Jesus was the wing commander of the Clover Park Air Force JROTC and deputy of the unarmed drill team, where he was named "Most Inspirational." Jesus was the first trumpet in the symphonic band and, outside of school, a volunteer for Centro Latino. Jesus was the recipient of an Act Six Scholarship and a Faculty Scholarship from PLU, where he plans to study chemistry. When he's not in school, Jesus enjoys researching recipes and tutoring younger students. Jesus is the son of Evangelina Soto and Jose Rosales.

Magaly Santos

Magaly was a member of the Clover Park Key Club, International Club and varsity fastpitch. She was a Daffodil Princess candidate and received an Excellence in Leadership Certificate, Kiwanis Key Club Scholarship and a Multicultural Achievement Program Scholarship from WWU, where she plans to study sociology. Magaly was a member of the Lakewood Youth Council, middle school tutor and member of her church youth group. She enjoys reading, spending time with family and friends and listening to music. Magaly is the daughter of Maura and Carlos Santos.

Nataly Scheidt

While at Lakes, Nataly was a member of the Knowledge Bowl team, Key Club and varsity tennis team. She plans to attend WWU and study English. Outside of school, Nataly enjoys reading, writing, running, playing violin and learning other languages. Nataly is the daughter of Phyllis and Kenneth Scheidt.

Wesley Schneider

Wesley was a member of the Lakes boy's varsity tennis team and earned the Most Inspirational Award and the Distinguished Scholastic Award. He plans to attend Pierce College, but has not selected his major. In the community, Wesley played softball for a Metro Parks league. He enjoys baseball, tennis, playing video games and rapping. Wesley is the son of Madeline and Jack Schneider.

Marcus Sheppard

While at Clover Park, Marcus was a member of the National Honor Society and the varsity basketball team, where he earned a Coaches' Award and an Award of Academic Excellence. He plans to attend Morehouse College in Georgia and study biology. In his free time, Marcus helped organize food drives and environmental service projects. He enjoys listening to classic R&B music and walking the dog. Marcus is the son of Sherry and Deltris Sheppard.

Angelika Sheen

Angelika was a member of the Lakes Key Club and National Honor Society. She plans to attend Pierce College and study nutrition and wellness. Angelika is a member of her church youth group and worship team and enjoys music, glass art, volleyball, soccer, baking and speaking French. Angelika is the daughter of Lorelei and Jim Sheen.

Miguel Smith

Miguel was a member of the Clover Park National Honor Society, performance choir and Super Fan Club. He was on the Honor Roll and named "Biggest Sweetheart" in the yearbook senior hall of fame. Miguel was the recipient of an Act Six Scholarship and an Academic Achievement Scholarship award from PLU, where he'll study business, specializing in sales and marketing. Miguel was a CISL mentor at Oakwood Elementary School, has a black belt in karate and works at Safeway. Miguel is the son of Patricia Hart and Stephen Smith.

Michelle Taylor

Michelle was captain of the Lakes cross country team, a member of the Knowledge Bowl team, orchestra and the National Honor Society. She won first place in the PTA Reflections program for her artwork and was awarded a Certificate of Merit from the Society of Women Engineers. Michelle plans to attend the UW and study engineering. She was also accepted to PLU, Gonzaga and Whitman Universities. Michelle has played the piano for the past eight years and is a volunteer at Oakbrook Elementary School. Michelle is the daughter of Marlene and Steve Taylor.

Chanel Washington

While at Lakes, Chanel was captain of the Knowledge Bowl team and a three-year ASB class president. She was also a three-year member of DECA, and served as the state president this school year. Chanel earned a Ron Brown Scholarship and a Key Foundation Elizabeth Wesley Scholarship and plans to attend Harvard University to study governmental relations. Chanel was a member of the Lakewood Youth Council, the Legislative Advisory Council of Washington and a volunteer with the Muscular Dystrophy Association. In her free time, Chanel enjoys reading, listening to music and playing with her little brother. Chanel is the daughter of Andrea Washington.

Jennifer Webster

Jennifer was a member of the Lakes ASB and varsity soccer and track teams. She received a presidential appointment to the United States Military Academy, where she'll study systems engineering. In her free time, Jennifer is involved in her church and coaches soccer. She also likes to run, read and enjoy frozen yogurt with her friends. Jennifer is the daughter of Caroline and Col. Chuck Webster.

Clara Williams

